

The property in which I am interested in does not have mains drainage or other utilities.

Connections to utilities can be made under the terms of contracts with the relevant providers. Charges are normally made for this.