

Do I need to do anything else to be able to live in the house or flat that I have purchased?

British citizens and other EU nationals do not presently require a visa to enter Romania but if they spend more than ninety days in Romania in any period of six months, they are required to register with the authorities and to obtain a temporary residence card.